Description

This good quality rosewood table has a square top with canted corners and shaped sides, the top is finished in quarter section veneer and finished off with a nice central motif and boxwood inlay around the edges of the top. The table stands on four rosewood cabriole legs on castors which are connected by a nicely shaped stretcher with a finial. The legs and stretchers are all beautifully inlaid with boxwood as well. All in all a lovely table that would suit a sitting-room, bedroom, hallway or as a small table to eat off. Free delivery on mainland England and Wales.
